Collection Of Books Extended

Collection of story books, reference books and supplementary textbooks being collected through the schools of Bowling Green under the City Council of the Parent-Teacher Association to be sent to Crittenden county, has been extended through Friday. Many households have books which children no longer need or care for, it was pointed out by Mrs. Ray Buckberry, president of the city council in urging that these volumes be shared with children of areas whose book supplies are limited and in communities where the need for supplementary textbooks is critical.

"If every child in the local schools brought one book for the collection we would have a shipment of approximately 2,500 books," Mrs. Chris Watson, president of the Bowling Green Junior-Senior High School Parent-Teacher Association, who is assisting in the collection, stated today.

THE 3RD DISTRICT P. T. A. - CONFERENCE WELL ATTENDED

"In the majority of cases, statistics show that children who fail to make passing grades in their school work, the root of the trouble may be traced to a home where cooperation between the home and school is not definitely intermingled", was the gist of the splendid talk given by Dr. W. M. Willey, of Western Teachers College in his address "Maintaining the Home Morale", which he delivered before the Third District Parent-Teachers Conference, Tuesday afternoon at Music Hall. He stated that "to be well-rounded, a child should have equal stress made on the church, home and school." He also stressed that "indifferent Parent-Teacher work makes an indelible impression on the child, in that the advantages which may be drawn from keeping in touch with other organizations, and the enthusiasm derived thereby, cannot be passed on to the students. Definitely, the progress made by students can never be laid solely on the shoulders of the teacher, as the training which the mother has had is reflected clearly in the ultimate goal of Good Citizenship toward which all home, school and civic effort is directed."

With a perfect Spring day, the 3rd District Parent-Teacher Spring Conference, was attended by a representative group of 171 delegates and visitors. Mrs. C. C. Howard, District president, presided and the music was in charge of Mrs. E. L. Williams, district music chairman. Devotional was conducted by Rev. Kenneth H. McCorkle. The Welcome addresses given by Mrs. Preston Jewell, president of the local organization, and Supt. James W. Depp, were responded to by Mrs. Lee Moore, of Franklin.

Mrs. Roy Phillips installed the following newly elected officers to serve the coming year: 1st Vice President, Mrs. Lee Moore, Franklin; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. W. W. Bridges, Drakesboro, and Treasurer, Mrs. H. D. Jesse of Bowling Green.

The Membership Award, which goes to the association having the greatest increase in membership this year over last, went to Glasgow, which now has a total membership of 432 over 211 last year. Runners-up award went to the College street PTA, Bowling Green, of which Mrs. Holt is president. 3rd went to Mrs. Glenn Butler, president of Scottsville PTA. This is the second time Glasgow has received this award, having merited it in 1939. In 1938 and 1940 the Jr. and Sr. High at Bowling Green was winner, and in 1941 Bristow had the greatest increase.

For making the best poster advertising the State PTA meeting in Middlesboro May 12, 13 and 14, prizes for the grades went to John Van Fleet 6th grade pupil of Center St. school, Bowling Green; 2nd and 3rd prizes to Roy Dennison and William Barnes, 5th grade students in same school. For Junior and Senior pupils, first prize went to Omar Lewis Gosnell, 11th grade, and Edward Mitchell, 9th grade pupil, both of Bowling Green High.

THE BUILDERS

"Isn't it strange that princes and kings
And clowns that caper in sawdust rings
And common folks like you and me
Are builders for eternity?

To each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass, and a book of rules;
And each must build, ere life is flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

Across the fields of yesterday
He sometimes comes to me
A little lad just back from play-
The lad I used to be.

Once he has crept within,
I wonder if he hopes to see
The man I might have been.

My Tribute

(Copyrighted)

Dedicated to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers by Mrs. Milton P. Higgins, Past President

(To be sung to tune of "Maryland, My Maryland")

Within my heart sweet strains I hear,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.
Your accents low and sweet and clear,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.
The prayers you said, the songs you sung,
The tales you told when I was young,
Inspire my life, my heart, my tongue,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.

The sterner virtues that you taught,
Father mine, oh Father mine.
The vic'tries won—the battles fought,
Father mine, oh Father mine.
You courage gave and made me strong,
To shield the weak, put down the wrong,
To upward lead the eager throng,
Father mine, oh Father mine.

When knowledge came with treasure rare,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.
You taught me how the boon to share,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.
You led me on in wisdom's ways,
Through pleasant paths and tangled maze,
You cleared the way, dispelled the haze,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.

The home, the school, the church combine,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine,
To touch the soul with life divine,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine.
Oh grant us this—our heart's desire
To fill our souls with living fire
Till each shall others' lives inspire,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine.

sons" why parents, teachers of "just citizens" interested in the development of future leadership for our nation should join the P.-T. A.

I.—There's a war on. In time of war, so many old-time basic values are in danger of being forgotten that it takes all every one of us can do to prevent it. The P.T.A. stands guard over just such values.

II.—Children's needs won't wait. It doesn't take long to grow up. And growing up under unwholesome or undesirable conditions means tragedy to the child and loss to the nation. The P.T.A. helps prevent both.

III.—Many heads are better than one. In the parent-teacher association all members pool their thinking in a common cause.

IV.—We've got to do something about the increase in juvenile delinquency, the day care of war workers' children, and a dozen other pressing problems. The P.T.A. let them see responsible adults from their own homes working together in the P.T.A.

VI.—This world needs to learn exactly what democracy is all about. Where better than in the P.T.A., one of the most democratic organizations in America?

VII.—We know more about training children than we used to. It makes a difference. The P.T.A. makes the latest and best information easily available.

VIII.—We need a balance-wheel for our war activities. The P.T.A. is grand at helping its members put first things first.

IX.—We want to do something practical to help win this war, so that we can go back to living normally. P.T.A. work for children is as practical as any work can be.

X.—Most of us have a more or less suppressed desire to do something to make a world a little bit better. In the P.T.A. there's a chance to begin to feel that this is not asking too much. Making the world better by rearing a better generation of children—that's not impossible at all. Anyhow, not in the P.T.A.

A 100 Percent P.-T. A.

The Rural Training School P.-T. A. has quite an unusual record, one of which they can be very proud indeed . . . for one thing, that unit has 100 per cent membership . . . every father and mother of children attending the Rural school are members of the P.-T. A. . . . and interested members at that . . . about 90 per cent of them attend all the meetings . . . the unit raised the money which was used to redecorate the interior of the school . . . the walls and woodwork have been painted a light ivory, which makes each room bright, cheerful and sunshiny, then the children, with the aid of Ruth Hines Temple, instructor in art, painted the book shelves and cabinets in designs of blue, red and green, adding a colorful touch to the smooth ivory of the walls . . . mothers of the children made new curtains for all the windows, shades for which were furnished by the college . . . and the place looked festive indeed after the Christmas decorations were put up . . . the main, or most interesting "decoration" is a group of 30 pictures of former Rural Training School students who are now in the armed forces . . . 27 boys and three girls . . . quite a record . . . in all this tho', we must not forget the guiding spirit and human dynamo behind the school's successes . . . the director, Ethel Clark . . . Ethel went to Owensboro, by the way, to spend the holidays with her sister, and has been ill with flu ever since . . . rather a disagreeable Christmas for her
